

Margaret Earl Barnes

1850-1950 Centennial Biography

Margaret Earl Barnes was born October 3, 1908, in Lehi, Utah, the daughter of B. Alma and Elizabeth Conder Earl.

She commenced her schooling in Lehi, and moved to American Fork in 1916, where she continued her schooling, graduating from Latter-day Saint Seminary in May, 1925.

She married Harold Winfor Barnes, June 18, 1930, in the Salt Lake Temple, making their home in Lehi. To this union three sons were born.

March 1934, she was set apart as president of the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Association of the Third Ward and served until July, 1940.

January, 1938, she was asked to serve on the Old Folk's Committee and is still an active member.

She was appointed May, 1942, to act as First Counselor in the Third Ward Relief Society, in which capacity she served until October, 1944, when she was released to become First Counselor in the Stake Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Association serving until August, 1945.

She was president of the Lehi Play School from May, 1945, to May, 1946, and was First Counselor of the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Association in the Third Ward from May, 1946, until August, 1948. She was released to accept the position as second Counselor in the Lehi Stake Relief Society.

In August, 1948, she was nominated Secretary and Treasurer of the Lehi Health Council and served until January, 1950.